Job Description

Job Purpose
The Reformed Tradition Prison Chaplain, as part of the chaplaincy team, is responsible for the provision of chaplaincy services to all persons in custody at HMP Glenochil. This involves conducting worship and providing pastoral care within the establishment, including individual and group work concerning prayer, the study of holy books, and discussions of matters spiritual and ethical. Duties will be carried out in co-operation with members of the ecumenical and multi-faith chaplaincy team. The Scottish Prison Service (SPS) Strategy Framework on Spiritual and Pastoral Care, Religion and Belief, is the foundational document for the delivery of chaplaincy across the SPS and the practice of prison chaplains should reflect this. This may be found at: http://www.sps.gov.uk/Corporate/Publications/Publication-4604.aspx
Key Responsibilities
1	Responsible for the conduct of worship in relevant tradition as agreed within the establishment, including arrangements for the administration of the sacraments as appropriate.
2	Facilitate the practice of all recognised religions and beliefs as required within the establishment.
3	Make arrangements as required for religious instruction for the Chaplain's own and other religious denominations. This will include individual and group work concerning prayer, study of holy books and discussion of matters spiritual and ethical, including classes for religious confirmation of belief.
4	Provision of holistic spiritual and pastoral care to all; with a priority for the vulnerable, for new admissions, for those on SPS prevention of suicide strategy (Talk to Me), the bereaved and for those in segregation units. Chaplains should respond to all requests as soon as practical. Chaplains should also be available to staff.
5	Work together with colleagues as part of the multi-faith Chaplaincy Team and with other disciplines in the organisation to support the SPS vision: 'Unlocking Potential – Transforming Lives'.

6	Liaise closely with staff, multi-disciplinary teams within the establishment and external faith communities to provide effective through care.
