OFFICER INSTRUCTOR – JOINER

Thank you for your interest in the above role. Below, you will find the job description and person specification, outlining how the different criteria will be assessed throughout the recruitment process. You will also find information on the recruitment and selection process and key dates.

The selection process will be split into 6 stages:

SELECTION PROCESS:

Stage 1: Application Form (all candidates)– applicants will complete an online application form via the online recruitment system.

Stage 2: Situational Judgement Test (on promotion)– candidates successful at shortlisting who are applying on promotion will undertake a values-based online situational judgement test. The scenarios presented are typical situations that Prison Officers face in their everyday duties. This exercise has no time limit but it is expected to take approximately 25-30 minutes to complete.

Stage 3: Cognitive Ability Test (on promotion)– those who successfully pass the situational judgement test will undertake an online cognitive ability test, which will assess cognitive ability across verbal, numerical and logical reasoning. This test is time limited and lasts 12 minutes.

Stage 4: Group Exercise and Written Exercise (on promotion)– those who successfully pass the cognitive ability test will undertake a group exercise and written exercise.

Stage 5: Interview (Residential Officer) –Those who successfully pass the group and written exercises will undertake the Residential Officer Interview. In addition, a sample of candidates at this stage of the process will be asked to undertake supervised follow-up cognitive ability testing to verify the results from their earlier online test.

Stage 6: Technical Skills Interview – The final stage of the selection process. Those successful at Interview (Residential Officer) plus all substantive D Band applicants who have been successful at Stage 1 will undertake a Technical Skills Interview, where you will be assessed against the relevant published criteria for the Officer Instructor role.

Candidates to Note: Should you be successful in gaining this role on promotion you will within 18 months of taking up appointment be required to complete the Residential Officer training programme as the first stage of the professional development pathway to a successful outcome.
